PRESENTER:

Bob Bethel, SPHR
The Employers' Association

The strength of an organization's leadership structure is essential to its ability to be successful and viable long-term. In order to be prepared for either a planned or sudden, permanent or short-term change in your organization's leadership, it is critical to have a plan in place for new leaders to assume those important responsibilities.

Join us as we explore the importance of succession planning and discuss the following topics:

- ❑ How to make the case for succession planning to your organization's top leaders
- ❑ How to ensure that the succession plan is in sync with your organization's strategic plan and goals
- ❑ The importance of thinking into the future (not just for today)
- ❑ How to position succession planning as a key part of a comprehensive talent management process
- ❑ Obtaining buy-in: getting your leaders to take ownership
- ❑ The importance of communication to the success of your plan
